Descrizione

Starting from the center of Vallo Torinese (535 m), you go up to the Chapel of San Rocco (594 m), and then turn on the left where path n. 045 starts. This becomes panoramic and continues to half coast over the villages of Vallo and Varisella. In short you reach, after a stretch in the woods, Village Ramai (590 m). After having crossed the village, which maintains the architectural characteristics of the rural settlements of Val Ceronda, you cross the Rio Creus and arrive to Moncolombone (568 m), which also shows the same typical character, and is surrounded by luxuriant woods. Then you take the rural track that reaches the pic-nic area near one of the confluences of the stream. After having crossed the bridge, you follow westwards path n. 048 towards locality Cascina Filiè (636 m). Along the service road of the municipal aqueduct, you reach the end of the wide Ceronda valley. You can appreciate there, besides the wonderful panorama, the geological formations peridotiti, which are here a very rare case of emerging rocks from the mantle. Once reached the pass (1515 m) near Bal Masche (the masche are figures of local legends similar to witches), you cross the crest escending towards Colle Lunella (1372 m). You will continue Northway, and then descend to Village San Vito (1237 m). Here you can find Refuge San Vito, a free and not managed possible stage point. Continuing along the dirt road, you reach Colle del Lys (1310 m) and the stage point in private accommodations.
